Dear Bucknellian:

Blue glaciers, rarely observed marine life, pristine waters, towering mountains, untouched coastlines and abundant wildlife. These are the wondrous sights that will unfold around you on this cruise of the Inside Passage and Alaska, last of the great American frontiers, aboard the Six-Star Silversea Small Ship M.V. SILVER SHADOW, featuring All Suites, Early Booking Savings, Better than Two-for-One pricing, Free Air from 23 major gateway cities and Low Air Add-Ons from many other cities. And the Passport to Luxury Shipboard Credit of $500 per couple allows you the opportunity to choose from a wide selection of shore excursions and onboard services.

Silversea's M.V. SILVER SHADOW provides an unmatched Small Ship experience along the Alaskan coast. It includes complimentary personal butler service, complimentary beverages—in your suite, with lunch and dinner and throughout the cruise—complimentary onboard gratuities and port taxes and even complimentary fitness classes. The ship also has several dining options, including alfresco, casual and fine restaurant venues.

Cruise from Vancouver, British Columbia, to Whittier, Alaska, and call at the historic towns of Ketchikan, Juneau, Skagway and Sitka. Look for whales, harbor seals, porpoises, sea lions, sea otters and eagles in their natural habitat. Cruise up-close to the Sawyer and Hubbard glaciers, and listen for the sound of cracking ice, then watch as glaciers calve into the sea.

The Pre-Cruise Option to cosmopolitan Vancouver, tucked between the ocean and mountains, one of Canada's most vibrant and beautiful cities, offers a perfect prelude to your cruise with the city's rich cultural history culled from the native people of the Pacific Northwest and Alaska. Conclude your cruise with a visit to the heartland wilderness of Alaska on the Post-Cruise Option to the home of grizzly bears, wolves and moose in Denali National Park before visiting the former frontier trading post city, Fairbanks.

In keeping with the countless superlatives Alaska has to offer, this program provides the best value, the finest accommodations and the optimal cruising itinerary! It was also a fast sell-out in 2010 and 2011. I encourage you to book now for the best opportunity to participate in the Free Air and Low Air Add-Ons Program. Space is limited for Free Air and is not guaranteed; therefore, I urge you not to wait until the Early Booking Savings deadline.*

The Inside Passage

Cruise the protected waters of the Inside Passage, one of the few pristine marine wilderness areas in the Western Hemisphere. Pass countless islands and evergreen forests reaching down to the water's edge and watch for bald eagles, humpback whales, harbor seals and sea otters.

Ketchikan

In the colorful fishing village of Ketchikan—"salmon capital of the world"—stroll the boardwalks of Creek Street and watch salmon swimming upstream in the middle of the village. Optional excursions feature a visit to a living Tlingit village; the impressive collection of cedar totem poles at Totem Bight State Historical Park, listed on the National Register of Historic Places; and the Deer Mountain Tribal Hatchery, where king and coho salmon and steelhead trout are raised; alternatively, cruise the glacier-sculpted inlets of Misty Fjords National Monument, where wildlife is abundant and spectacular near-vertical cliffs rise from the water.

Tracy Arm/ Sawyer Glacier

Cruise into the deep fjord of Tracy Arm, where waterfalls spill from dramatic cliffs, lush forest fades to spectacular sheer rock and icebergs glint in the sunlight. Approach the twin North and South Sawyer Glaciers, actively calving chunks of ice that become floating platforms for hundreds of harbor seals. Watch for Arctic terns, pigeon guillemots and even mountain goats.

The lovely seaside town of Sitka, settled thousands of years ago between majestic, snow-capped mountains and the shores of the Pacific Ocean, proudly exhibits its Russian and Tlingit heritage.

Skagway's historic downtown, gateway to the Yukon Territory, captures the excitement of Alaska's Gold Rush days.

Juneau

Located on Gastineau Channel, Alaska's picturesque state capital comprises one of the largest land masses in North and South America (spread over 3,108 square miles) and is the only American state capital not accessible by automobile. Join an optional excursion to the mighty Mendenhall Glacier—12 miles long, one and a half miles wide and more than 100 feet high at its terminus—just one of 38 glaciers that lead out of the vast Juneau Icefield. Explore Juneau's urban attractions at your leisure—visit the Alaska State Museum or the Red Dog Saloon, Alaska's best-known frontier watering hole.

Skagway

During the great Klondike gold rush of 1896-1901, prospectors thronged to Skagway, the gateway to the Yukon Territory. Join an optional excursion aboard the historic landmark narrow-gauge White Pass and Yukon Route Railway steam train to follow 20 miles of the gold prospectors' route through a stretch of Alaska's most spectacular scenery and forbidding territory.

Sitka

A renowned, beautiful Inside Passage city-borough (self-governing community) built on Baranof Island, Sitka is laden with the art and history of its Russian, American and native Alaskan past. It was originally settled by the native Tlingit people, but by the late 1790s, Russian fur traders had become permanent settlers. During optional excursions, you can choose to explore the native artifacts in the National Historical Park and an impressive collection of gold and silver icons in St. Michael's Russian Orthodox Cathedral, or visit the Raptor Rehabilitation Center, Alaska's foremost bald eagle habitat, where more than 100 injured eagles recuperate and are released back into the wild each year.

Ice calving from Hubbard Glacier.

Hubbard Glacier

See one of nature's ice-age wonders. The awesome "galloping" Hubbard Glacier—whose rapid advance is at times over 40 feet in one day—is the longest tidewater glacier (75 miles long and covering 1,350 square miles) in North America! Watch for icebergs calving from the face of this 300-foot-high glacier. In 1986, an unprecedented geological record was set when the glacier blocked Russell Fjord, creating a natural dam over 90 feet high.

Whittier/Anchorage

Enjoy a scenic transfer from Whittier to Anchorage, with magnificent views of the towering snow-capped mountains of the Kenai Peninsula and the shores of spectacular Turnagain Arm. Watch for pods of orca or beluga whales hunting for salmon and waterfalls cascading to the valley floor en route to Anchorage.

Vancouver Pre-Cruise Option

Surrounded by water on three sides and nestled alongside the Coast Mountain Range, Vancouver's spectacular setting combines a diverse ecosystem with a vibrant cosmopolitan environment rich in art and culture. The perfect prelude to your cruise, this two-night Vancouver Pre-Cruise Option features the historic 19th-century Gastown District, Stanley Park, sites of the 2010 Olympic Games, Chinatown, English Bay, Granville Island, and the acclaimed University of British Columbia's Museum of Anthropology. Accommodations are in the deluxe WESTIN BAYSHORE HOTEL.

The Pre-Cruise Option is available at additional cost, and details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

Denali National Park and Fairbanks Post-Cruise Option

Alaska's Inside Passage, where the water meets the wild, is only the gateway to terra incognita. Travel inland and deep into the pristine wilderness of Denali National Park, home to alluring Mt. McKinley, North America's tallest peak, then venture further up the rolling green tundra to the former frontier trading post, Fairbanks, for the perfect conclusion to your northern experience.

After disembarking the ship, spend one night in Anchorage, "the City of Lights and Flowers." Then, enjoy a scenic transfer to America's splendid six-million-acre Denali National Park.

Spend two nights in a lodge located near the park's entrance. Enjoy a discussion about the park's ecosystem, and journey into the heart of Denali, where a park guide will help you look for Denali's amazing wildlife—moose, bear, caribou, wolves, Dall sheep and raptors—in its protected natural habitat.

Travel aboard a domed train offering open-air observation platforms and stunning 360-degree views of the majestic landscape—mountains, gorges and spruce forests—during the journey to Fairbanks.

Spend two nights in Fairbanks, where you can learn about daily frontier life a century ago, when gold was discovered in nearby creeks. Visit the award-winning galleries of the Museum of the North, view a portion of the incredible Trans-Alaska pipeline, and cruise the fabled Chena and Tenana Rivers aboard an authentic sternwheeler.

Join us for this comprehensive, five-night, specially arranged Post-Cruise Option to further explore America's amazing last frontier and interior wilderness.

The Post-Cruise Option is available at additional cost, and details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

See Mt. McKinley, the tallest mountain in North America, 20,320 feet above sea level, and the centerpiece of Denali National Park, renowned for its undisturbed natural ecosystem.
