CLARIFICATION OF ACADEMIC CONCENTRATION/MAJOR

Please refer to the Area of Academic Concentration/Major section on the last page of this application supplement and indicate your choice of college and major (or preference for undecided status) on page 2. First, please review the following notes:

First-year applicants:

- Bucknell admits students to intended majors and frequently receives large numbers of applicants to certain programs. We review your application according to your first-choice major listed on the next page. In some cases, the major you indicate may affect your chance of admission.
- It is fine to be undecided about your major at this time. If you are undecided, please write “undecided” in the space provided. Be sure to indicate whether you want to enroll in the College of Arts and Sciences or the College of Engineering. Transfer into the College of Engineering at a later time cannot be guaranteed.
- Management has limited space for students who enter Bucknell as undecided majors. Therefore, if you want to major in management, do not list yourself as undecided. Space cannot be guaranteed at a later time.
- If you want to apply for admission to a five-year, dual-degree program in engineering, please select a major in the College of Engineering (undecided is acceptable) and list both the program and the engineering major in the space provided on the next page.

Transfer applicants:

- The accounting, management, biomedical engineering and bachelor of management for engineers majors are closed to transfer students. Transfer students cannot be admitted to these programs and will not be eligible for them at a later time. Engineering, biology and economics have limited spaces available to transfer students. If you are interested in a major that is limited, Bucknell recommends that you list it as your first-choice major, since enrollment in these programs cannot be guaranteed at a later time.
- Transfer applicants must note a choice of major and cannot choose undecided. Bucknell does not admit transfer students who have completed more than the equivalent of 2-1/2 years or 80 semester hours of college study.
