Bucknell students are among the most successful student-athletes at the NCAA level. In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell student-athletes earned academic honors, including 145 who were honored as Academic All-Americans. This total ranks Bucknell 20th in the nation among Division I schools for the number of scholar-athletes. Eighty-three percent of Bucknell student-athletes earn their degrees on time, with 96% graduating within six years. The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell teams have won Patriot League championships in 22 different sports, and Bucknell teams have won Patriot League championships in 22 different sports. Bucknell competes in NCAA Division I athletics. Twenty-four of the 27 teams compete in the Patriot League, which also includes American, Army West Point, Boston College, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola University Maryland and Navy.

- Bucknell students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship 145 times, including 14 of the last 19 years (and it has been runner-up five times).
- The three other varsity programs are wrestling and men’s and women’s water polo.
- Bucknell’s coaches strongly support the scholar-athlete model, encouraging students to become better athletes while supporting academic growth as the University’s number-one priority.
- The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell teams have won Patriot League championships in 22 different sports.
- In the 26 years that the Patriot League Presidents’ Cup has been awarded for overall excellence in the 24 league championships, Bucknell has taken the honor 18 times, including 14 of the last 19 years (and it has been runner-up five times).
- Bucknell is a leader in student-athlete graduation rates. According to federal data released by the NCAA in the fall of 2015, Bucknell’s four-year student-athlete graduation rate ranked second in the nation among students who entered college between the 2005-06 and 2008-09 academic years.
- The University ranks 20th in the nation among Division I schools for the number of varsity sports offered in which the NCAA conducts championships.
- Over the past 10 years, eight Bucknell teams – baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s golf, softball, men’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s soccer – competed in their respective NCAA championships.
- In 2015-16, Bucknell won two Patriot League championships. Bucknell won Patriot League titles in women’s cross country and women’s indoor and outdoor track & field. Men’s basketball and women’s basketball captured Patriot League regular-season titles.

Bucknell is one of the nation’s most accomplished institutions in combining athletics with academic success. Since 1978, 129 Bucknell men and women have been named to national Academic All-America teams. This total ranks in the top 10 among all Division I schools.

- Students receive academic recognition through coaching organizations. Since 1981-82, 355 Bucknell men and women have been selected for district Academic All-America teams, including those making the national teams sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America.
- 18 students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.
- Each year, the Patriot League Selects one person in each sport as the best scholar-athlete. Since 1990, 145 Bucknell students have received that distinction. This total is the highest total in the league.
- In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell athletes earned positions on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. A total of 628 student-athletes earned a position on the University dean’s list in the fall and spring semesters.

Visit the athletics website at bucknell.edu/athletics

Follow @bucknell_bison on Twitter and BucknellAthletics on Facebook

Office of Admissions | Bucknell University | One Dent Drive, Lewisburg, PA 17837
570-577-3000 | admissions@bucknell.edu | bucknell.edu
Through the club sports program, students participate in competitive/instructional sports. Clubs allow members to compete against intercollegiate teams and enhance their skills. Clubs are student-initiated and student-run.

23 club sports are available:

- Baseball
- Cheerleading
- Cycling
- Equestrian
- Women's Field Hockey
- Men's Ice Hockey
- Men's Lacrosse
- Women's Lacrosse
- Men's Rugby
- Sailing
- Ski Racing

Men's crew has club varsity status.

Associate Athletic Director, Recreation Services: Karen Landis, 570-577-1656

As Bison Athletics seeks to create a comprehensive learning environment that meshes with the academic mission of the University, an important element of the complete student-athlete experience is participation in an elite leadership development program designed to identify, develop, challenge and support student-athletes and coaches.

In 2011 the Bucknell Athletics Leadership Institute was launched. This formal leadership training and development program is designed to assist student-athletes in becoming strong leaders in academics, athletics and in life.

For more information on Bucknell Athletics leadership programming, visit bucknellbisons.com

Through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), Bucknell students provide input and insight on policies that affect student-athletes.

The mission of the NCAA SAAC is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image.

Bucknell SAAC activities include visits to elementary schools, hospitals, housing authorities and the local food bank.
Through the club sports program, students participate in competitive/instructional sports. Clubs allow members to compete against intercollegiate teams and enhance their skills. Clubs are student-initiated and student-run.

23 club sports are available:

- Baseball
- Cheerleading
- Cycling
- Equestrian
- Women’s Field Hockey
- Men’s Ice Hockey
- Men’s Lacrosse
- Women’s Lacrosse
- Men’s Rugby
- Sailing
- Ski Racing

Men’s crew has club-varsity status.

Associate Athletic Director, Recreation Services: Karen Landis, 570-577-1656

---

Through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), Bucknell students provide input and insight on policies that affect student-athletes.

The mission of the NCAA SAAC is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image.

Bucknell SAAC activities include visits to elementary schools, hospitals, housing authorities and the local food bank.

---

As Bison Athletics seeks to create a comprehensive learning environment that meshes with the academic mission of the University, an important element of the complete student-athlete experience is participation in an elite leadership development program designed to identify, develop, challenge and support student-athletes and coaches.

In 2011 the Bucknell Athletics Leadership Institute was launched. This formal leadership training and development program is designed to assist student-athletes in becoming strong leaders in academics, athletics and in life.

For more information on Bucknell Athletics leadership programming, visit BucknellBison.com.

---

*Bucknell finished third
Bucknell finished second
ATHLETICS and RECREATION

Offering 27 varsity men’s and women’s teams, intramurals, club sports and physical fitness opportunities.

bucknell.edu/athletics

Academic SUCCESS

• Bucknell students are among the most accomplished in the nation in combining athletics with academic success. Since 1970, 129 Bucknell men and women have been named to national Academic All-America teams. This total ranks in the top 10 among all Division I schools.

• Students receive academic recognition through coaching organizations. Since 1981-82, 355 Bucknell men and women have been selected for district Academic All-America teams, including those making the national teams sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

• 18 students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

• Each year, the Patriot League selects one person in each sport as the best scholar-athlete. Since 1990, 145 Bucknell students have received that distinction. This total is the highest total in the league.

• In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell athletes earned positions on the Patriot League academic honor roll. A total of 628 student-athletes earned a position on the University dean’s list in the fall and spring semesters.

• Bucknell competes in NCAA Division I athletics. Twenty-four of the 27 teams compete in the Patriot League, which also includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola University Maryland and Navy.

• The three other varsity programs are wrestling and men’s and women’s water polo.

• Bucknell’s coaches strongly support the scholar-athlete model, encouraging students to become better athletes while supporting academic growth as the University’s number-one priority.

• The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell athletes have been selected for district Academic All-America teams.

• The University’s number-one priority.

Bucknell students are among the most accomplished in the nation in combining athletics with academic success. Since 1970, 129 Bucknell men and women have been named to national Academic All-America teams. This total ranks in the top 10 among all Division I schools.

Students receive academic recognition through coaching organizations. Since 1981-82, 355 Bucknell men and women have been selected for district Academic All-America teams, including those making the national teams sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

18 students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

Each year, the Patriot League selects one person in each sport as the best scholar-athlete. Since 1990, 145 Bucknell students have received that distinction. This total is the highest total in the league.

In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell athletes earned positions on the Patriot League academic honor roll. A total of 628 student-athletes earned a position on the University dean’s list in the fall and spring semesters.

Bucknell competes in NCAA Division I athletics. Twenty-four of the 27 teams compete in the Patriot League, which also includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola University Maryland and Navy.

The three other varsity programs are wrestling and men’s and women’s water polo.

Bucknell’s coaches strongly support the scholar-athlete model, encouraging students to become better athletes while supporting academic growth as the University’s number-one priority.

The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell athletes have been selected for district Academic All-America teams.

Bucknell students are among the most accomplished in the nation in combining athletics with academic success. Since 1970, 129 Bucknell men and women have been named to national Academic All-America teams. This total ranks in the top 10 among all Division I schools.

Students receive academic recognition through coaching organizations. Since 1981-82, 355 Bucknell men and women have been selected for district Academic All-America teams, including those making the national teams sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

18 students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

Each year, the Patriot League selects one person in each sport as the best scholar-athlete. Since 1990, 145 Bucknell students have received that distinction. This total is the highest total in the league.

In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell athletes earned positions on the Patriot League academic honor roll. A total of 628 student-athletes earned a position on the University dean’s list in the fall and spring semesters.

Bucknell competes in NCAA Division I athletics. Twenty-four of the 27 teams compete in the Patriot League, which also includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola University Maryland and Navy.

The three other varsity programs are wrestling and men’s and women’s water polo.

Bucknell’s coaches strongly support the scholar-athlete model, encouraging students to become better athletes while supporting academic growth as the University’s number-one priority.

The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell teams have won Patriot League championships in 22 different sports.

In the 26 years that the Patriot League Presidents’ Cup has been awarded for overall excellence in the 24 league championships, Bucknell has taken the honor 18 times, including 14 of the last 19 years (and it has been runner-up five times).

Bucknell is a leader in student-athlete graduation rates. According to federal data released by the NCAA in the fall of 2015, Bucknell’s four-year student-athlete graduation rate ranked second in the nation among students who entered college between the 2005-06 and 2008-09 academic years.

The University ranks 20th in the nation among Division I schools for the number of varsity sports offered in which the NCAA conducts championships.

Over the past 10 years, eight Bucknell teams – baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s golf, softball, men’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s soccer – competed in their respective NCAA championships.

In 2015-16, Bucknell won two Patriot League championships. Bucknell won Patriot League titles in women’s cross country and women’s indoor and outdoor track & field. Men’s basketball and women’s basketball captured Patriot League regular-season titles.

Academic SUCCESS

• Bucknell students are among the most accomplished in the nation in combining athletics with academic success. Since 1970, 129 Bucknell men and women have been named to national Academic All-America teams. This total ranks in the top 10 among all Division I schools.

• Students receive academic recognition through coaching organizations. Since 1981-82, 355 Bucknell men and women have been selected for district Academic All-America teams, including those making the national teams sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

• 18 students have received the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

• Each year, the Patriot League selects one person in each sport as the best scholar-athlete. Since 1990, 145 Bucknell students have received that distinction. This total is the highest total in the league.

• In the 2015-16 academic year, 424 Bucknell athletes earned positions on the Patriot League academic honor roll. A total of 628 student-athletes earned a position on the University dean’s list in the fall and spring semesters.

Bucknell competes in NCAA Division I athletics. Twenty-four of the 27 teams compete in the Patriot League, which also includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola University Maryland and Navy.

The three other varsity programs are wrestling and men’s and women’s water polo.

Bucknell’s coaches strongly support the scholar-athlete model, encouraging students to become better athletes while supporting academic growth as the University’s number-one priority.

The University’s stellar reputation carries through to athletics. Since 1990, 103 Bucknell teams have won Patriot League championships in 22 different sports.

In the 26 years that the Patriot League Presidents’ Cup has been awarded for overall excellence in the 24 league championships, Bucknell has taken the honor 18 times, including 14 of the last 19 years (and it has been runner-up five times).

Bucknell is a leader in student-athlete graduation rates. According to federal data released by the NCAA in the fall of 2015, Bucknell’s four-year student-athlete graduation rate ranked second in the nation among students who entered college between the 2005-06 and 2008-09 academic years.

The University ranks 20th in the nation among Division I schools for the number of varsity sports offered in which the NCAA conducts championships.

Over the past 10 years, eight Bucknell teams – baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s golf, softball, men’s lacrosse and men’s and women’s soccer – competed in their respective NCAA championships.

In 2015-16, Bucknell won two Patriot League championships. Bucknell won Patriot League titles in women’s cross country and women’s indoor and outdoor track & field. Men’s basketball and women’s basketball captured Patriot League regular-season titles.