The Race/Gender Resource Center's quarterly newsletter provides information about scholarship opportunities that focus on issues of race and gender, including conferences, calls for papers, and job announcements. Also look for postings about upcoming events sponsored or co-sponsored by the Center. Please contact the Center at 215-445 if you would like to post an announcement. We invite you to visit the Center at room 3-A Marks Hall, opposite the post office. The Center's library includes several journals and books as well as a file of catalogues, flyers, and order forms for new books, periodicals, and films in race and gender studies. We also have further information about most of the announcements listed below.

CALLS FOR PAPERS/PRESENTERS:

Seventh National American Women Writers of Color Conference will be held October 31 to November 2, 1997. We invite individual, panel and round table submissions on all aspects of scholarship on 19th and 20th century American Women Writers of Color. Send 300-word abstracts by May 5, 1997 to: Connie Richards (crichards@ssu.edu) or Judith Pike (jpike@ssu.edu) Department of English, Salisbury State University, 1101 Camden Avenue, Salisbury, MD 21801-6680. Fax: 410-543-6068.

The Nineteenth-Century Group at the University of Toronto will host a cross-disciplinary conference, “Beauty in the Nineteenth-Century,” on September 19 to 20, 1997. All papers from all disciplines are welcomed and abstracts for twenty-minute papers must be received by June 1, 1997. Please send 300-500 word abstracts to BEAUTY Conference Committee, Graduate Department of English, University of Toronto, 7 King’s College Circle, Toronto, Ontario, MSS 1A1. Abstracts can also be e-mailed to Marc Plamondon at: mplammond@chass.utoronto.ca.

Call for papers for a special issue of Social Semiotics. Queer theory has proved to be one of the more interesting and productive of recent moves in cultural theory. This issue will attempt to move beyond the celebration of queer which has characterized much writing in the area, and to attempt to adequately historicize the concept of queer: to provide papers which are self-reliance in their use of the term, and to give some sense to its provenance and varieties. Abstracts of 300 words are invited. The deadline for completed papers of not more than 7000 words is July 1997. Please send abstracts to, or for further information contacting: Dr. Alan McKee, Department of Media Services, Edith Cowan University, 2 Bradford Street, Mt. Lawley, Perth 6050, Australia. E-mail: a.mckee@cowan.edu.au or Fax: 61-9-370-6668.

Call for FICTION. Disclosure invites submissions from all perspectives and fiction styles from authors concerned with social theory and –for this issue–aspects of color. Submissions should address, critique and/or rede/construct notions of race and ethnicity. Send three copies of submissions, double-spaced and no more than 2000 words. Deadline: July 31, 1997. Send to: disclosure, Jeff Birkenstein, Fiction, c/o Department of Philosophy, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506-0027 or e-mail: disclosure@ufs.uky.edu or phone: (606) 257-6035.

Seeking submissions for a collection of philosophical narratives to be published by Rowan and Littlefield in 1998. College in White: Feminist Philosophical Reflections on Race and Identity is not an attempt to present a definitive illustration of what it means to be a white woman. Rather, it is meant to be a collage of reflective narratives in which we might see significant patterns, contradictions, and other points of theoretical interest for struggles against racism and racialism. Contributors are invited to deviate—through narrative—from strict scholarly formats. Send submissions of 2500 words, hard copies only, by August 15, 1997, to: Chris J. Cuomo, Department of Philosophy, Mail Location 374, University of Cincinnati, Ohio, 45221. For further information, please write or e-mail: christine.cuomo@uc.edu or hallak@pilot.neu.edu.

South Wales Feminist History and Archive Project is underway. Any one who was involved in any way with the Women’s Liberation Movement in South Wales, especially in Cardiff or Swansea (the project’s present focus), please consider contacting us. We are interested in preserving vital source documents, personal recollections, or any other relevant material. Interviews are encouraged. The project in its present form ends August 1997. Please contact Ursula Masson, Project Leader, 01443 482514; e-mail: umasson@glam.ac.uk or Avril Rolph, Research Assistant, 01443 482569; e-mail: arolph@glam.ac.uk or Fax: 01443 482138.
Please note:

Ph.D. in Computer Science, University of Washington

Application deadline: November 1, 2023

The Department of Computer Science at the University of Washington invites applications for a position in the area of AI algorithms, machine learning, and data structures.

The position is full-time and offers a competitive salary.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Join the Exciting World of AI and Machine Learning at the University of Washington

We are seeking a highly motivated individual to fill this position in our AI lab.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct research in the field of AI and machine learning
- Collaborate with other researchers in the lab
- Publish papers in prestigious conferences and journals

Requirements:

- Ph.D. in Computer Science or related field
- Strong background in AI and machine learning
- Experience in publishing research papers

Send your application, including a CV and cover letter, to:

Dr. John Doe, AI Lab Director
University of Washington
Department of Computer Science
Seattle, WA 98195

Deadline: November 1, 2023

Please note that this is a full-time, tenure-track position.

Update: Applications due by November 1, 2023. This position is closed.

Please note that all applications must be submitted by November 1, 2023.

---

Upcoming events:

---

Conference:

10th Annual Machine Learning Conference

Venue: University of Washington, Seattle, WA

Date: October 10-12, 2023

Registration:

Early Bird Rate: $150

Standard Rate: $200

Contact:

Conference Organizers

University of Washington

Seattle, WA 98195

Phone: (206) 530-9000

Email: conference@uw.edu

---

More details:

---

The conference will feature keynote speeches, workshops, and panel discussions on the latest developments in machine learning.

---

The conference will be held in person, with options for virtual participation.

---

Registration information and further details will be available on the conference website.