III. THE PHILOSOPHICAL COURSE

The philosophical course is designed to provide a foundation in the principles of philosophy, focusing on the development and analysis of philosophical ideas and concepts. This course will cover a range of topics, including logic, metaphysics, ethics, and the philosophy of science.

The course will be divided into two main parts:

1. Logic and Rationality
   - Introduction to logical reasoning
   - Deductive and inductive reasoning
   - The nature of argument and reasoning

2. Philosophical Theories
   - The nature of reality
   - Epistemology and the nature of knowledge
   - Ethics and moral philosophy
   - Philosophy of language and mind

The course will be taught through a combination of lectures, discussions, and written assignments. Students will be expected to engage in critical thinking and to develop their ability to construct and evaluate arguments.

IV. PRE-ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

In order to be considered for admission to the Philosophical course, applicants must meet the following requirements:

- A minimum GPA of 3.0 in recent academic courses
- Completion of a minimum of two courses in philosophy
- Participation in a pre-admission interview

The final decision on admission will be made by the Admissions Committee based on the completeness and quality of the application materials.
