GENERAL COLLEGE ORDERS.

ATTENDANCE.

Only under exceptional circumstances will excuses be granted to leave College during term time. In such cases the examinations on the studies gone over by the class, during a student's absence, will be specially searching, and a high degree of attainment will be exacted. One who is absent during an entire term must almost necessarily lose his standing in his class. The work of the term begins on the day of opening, and recitations are expected at the first hour appointed for the meeting of the classes. The work continues uninterruptedly, with the exception of holidays marked in the Calendar, until the last day of the term.

STANDING.

Each instructor records, in numbers ranging from 0 to 10, the character of the recitations of every student reciting to him, and notes also any delinquency in conduct and attendance. The weekly summary of these markings is recorded in a permanent book, and constitutes the basis for determining the standing of the student during his connection with the Institution. Unexcused absences from recitations are counted as zeroes in making up the weekly averages. At the close of each term an average of these marks is made out, and a report of the scholarship, attendance and conduct of each student is transmitted to his parent or guardian by the President. No student is advanced from one class to another whose average in any study is less than 7.

Conditioned students are not recommended to the Board of Trustees for promotion, and their names in the Annual Catalogue appear with those of the class to which the study in question belongs. Students conditioned on entrance must discharge such conditions within the first year thereafter.

Appointments in the Graduating Class are made according to the aggregate standing of each member during his entire course. But in assigning these parts, the Faculty takes into account the deportment of the student, as well as marks for recitations. The minimum average for an Oration of the First Class is fixed at 9, and for an Oration of the Second Class at 8.

Students who attain an average of 9.4 or more for their entire course are graduated summa cum laude; students who attain an average of 9.2 or more are graduated magna cum laude; those who attain an average of 9 or more are graduated cum laude.

EXAMINATIONS.

The dates of the examinations are given in the Calendar. In case a student fails to be present at the examination of his class, for any justifiable reason, his examination will be held at such time as the Faculty may appoint.
PUBLIC WORSHIP.

The College duties of each day are opened with religious services in Bucknell Hall, which all the students are required to attend.

Attendance upon public worship in some church in town on Sunday morning is required. Students must attend the religious services held on Thanksgiving Day.

On the Day of Prayer for Colleges, religious services are held in the forenoon, when a sermon is preached by the President, or by some one at his request. All the students are required to attend. In the afternoon a prayer-meeting is held in Bucknell Hall, and in the evening, another in connection with one of the churches in town, attendance upon which is urged, though not required.

VOLUNTARY SOCIETIES.

Euphia ; Theta Alpha.—These are the two Literary Societies of the College. They have meetings on Friday evening of each week for Orations, Essays and Debates. Each Society has a convenient Hall, and, by an arrangement of the Faculty, will always have a nearly equal number of members.

The Young Men's Christian Association comprises students from the College. It receives religious periodicals and corresponds with kindred societies. A new Hall has recently been appropriated to the society, and has been suitably furnished for religious meetings.

The Students' Publishing Association is an organization which has in charge the issuing of the "University Mirror." This periodical, of some twenty-four or more quarto pages, appears semi-monthly during the collegiate year.

GOVERNMENT.

It is assumed that all who enter upon the courses of study in the College do so for the purpose of acquiring an education, not only of the intellect, but also of character. The Laws of the College, enacted by the Board of Trustees, are as few and simple as the proper regulation of a community of young men will permit. These are printed, and a copy is placed in the hands of every student at the beginning of each year. These Laws must be observed, not only in their letter, but in their spirit. The atmosphere of the institution is not that of arbitrary restraint, but of reasonable conformity to reasonable laws. The College does not wish to place its stamp or bestow its honors upon any one who is not willing to deport himself as a gentleman. Each student is distinctly placed upon his manhood, and if he abuses his privileges, after reasonable caution, he must withdraw from the Institution.
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE HOURS.

The President of the University is in his office, in the Main College building, every Tuesday from 9:30 A.M. to 12 noon, to confer with students who may desire advice or assistance. Students are encouraged to communicate frankly with the President upon any subject in which he may be of help to them.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

THE TUSTIN GYMNASIUM.

WILLIAM R. H. HARPER, WILLARD MAINE BUNNELL, DIRECTORS.

The Tustin Gymnasium has been provided for the physical training and development of male students. Young women have opportunity for physical education in the Gymnasium of the Institute. These are now provided with the apparatus usually found in well furnished gymnasiums. The Directors of the Gymnasium examine every student, taking and recording in a book his physical measurements, and prescribe such exercises as may be required for his physical development. Regular exercise in the gymnasium is required of all students during the winter term.

The Athletic Association of the College has been formed to encourage and regulate athletic sports. Considerable liberty is permitted to the Association in carrying out its purpose. The Association is not allowed, however, to arrange match games with other similar bodies without first having secured the consent of the Faculty.

An Infirmary, separate from the rooms of the students, has been fitted up for the better care of the sick.
GENERAL INFORMATION.

ADVANTAGES.

The Bucknell Institute offers to young ladies unusual educational advantages. Its location in a University town assures an atmosphere of study, and the benefit of numerous literary exercises, lectures and addresses. The students in the institute have the use not only of the Library and apparatus of the Institute, but of the College as well, including the Astronomical Observatory, Chemical Laboratory, Museum, and the various apparatus of the University. An isolated school could not provide for itself these advantages at a cost of less than a quarter of a million dollars.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND OTHER REGULATIONS.

1. The general control of the Institute is vested in the President of the University.

2. The government of the Institute, subject to such control, rests with the Principal of the Institute.

3. Young ladies attending the College or School of Music are subject to the rules and regulations governing the young ladies attending the Institute.

RULES.

The rules of the Institute are few and simple and such as contemplate relations with those only whose purpose it is to conform to reasonable laws.

Parents should not seek to direct their daughters in such particulars as might interfere with the regulations of the Institute.

The following are selections from the regulations:

1. No student is allowed to leave the Institute grounds at any time without permission from the Principal.

2. Unless for reasons very satisfactory, students from a distance are not permitted to visit their homes, or to leave the Institute to visit with relatives or friends in town.

3. None but near relatives and friends from a distance are allowed to visit with boarding students, and such visits must be so arranged as not to interfere with the regular hours of study and recitation.
4. Students are not at liberty to invite guests to their private apartments, or to any part of the building, without permission from the Principal.

5. Teachers and students take their meals at the same table, and no special article of food is served to any one except in case of sickness.

6. Parents and guardians are particularly requested to refrain from furnishing their daughters and wards with eatables of any kind, except fruit.

7. Patrons visiting young ladies at the Institute may be accommodated with board at one dollar a day, if there are vacant rooms. In no case will students be required to give up their rooms to visitors. It is expected that all visitors will conform to the general regulations of the Institute.

8. Regular and systematic exercise, both in the open air and in the Ladies' Gymnasium, is required of each student.

9. In the Regular Course, the number of daily recitations is fixed. Special students are required to engage in such a number as may, in the judgment of the Principal, be sufficient to occupy their time.

10. The character of each recitation is recorded at the time, and the result, together with a statement of the general industry and deportment of the student, is sent to the parent or guardian at the close of the term.

11. The passing grade in any study is a definite one, and must be attained before promotion can be secured.

12. No room will be reserved for a student unless definitely engaged.

13. The books and current periodicals of the College and Institute Libraries are available for all students.

14. ARTICLES REQUIRED.—Each student should be provided with an umbrella, water-proof, overshoes, table napkins, towels, covers for bureau and washstand, counterpanes, sheets and pillow-cases; size of pillow, twenty by thirty inches; bureau, forty-three by nineteen inches; washstand, thirty-two by sixteen inches.

Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full. It is especially desired that the dress of pupils shall be simple and inexpensive. Whenever practicable, the wardrobe should be prepared at home, to avoid frequent visits to town.

An infirmary, for such students as may become sick during their residence in the school, has been established in a portion of the main building, remote from all noise.

A dispensary, containing medicines for use in sudden illness, has recently been established.
