Energy/environmental consultant Marcus B. Sheffer will give an overview of the Living Building Challenge™ Energy Petal at noon on Thurs., Sept. 15, in Academic West Room 112. Students, faculty, and staff are welcome.

Topics will include the no combustion rule, resiliency, integrative practice, and the design of net positive building projects. Regional project examples will be discussed.