Arrival and Check-In

8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Technology Desk Consultants will be available in the halls to assist you if you have problems connecting to the network.

11 a.m. - noon

Writing Center Welcome Reception

Roberts Hall Lobby, Roberts Hall

You and your family are invited to meet the Writing Center staff. The center is available to all students. Come learn about one-on-one writing sessions with students, workshops on various kinds of writing, oral communication practice sessions and tutoring offered in mathematics and science.

11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Resource Fair Ground floor, Elaine Langone Center

Learn about checking accounts from local banks, subscribe to The Bucknellian (the student newspaper), and get your questions answered by representatives from Psychological Services, Health Services, Public Safety, Bucknell Dining, Library and Information Technology, and Housing and Residential Life.

11 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Lunch Bostwick Dining Hall, Terrace Room, Walls Lounge and Room 256, Elaine Langone Center

You, your family and friends are invited to a lunch as guests of the University. (no charge)

11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

“Chips Off the Ol’ Block” Alumni Parent and Student Reception Hunt Formal Living Room, Hunt Hall

Meet President Brian C. and Maryjane Mitchell as we celebrate Bucknell alumni legacy families and welcome alumni first-year sons and daughters to the Bucknell community.

11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Religious Life Open Houses St. George Street

You and your family are invited to drop by the Berelson Center (Jewish), the Protestant Campus Ministry House and the Newman House (Roman Catholic) along St. George Street (just north of Smith Hall, across from Financial Aid) to meet Bucknell’s chaplains, their staff and students from our University religious programs.

11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

DiversiTea Cultural Center Lounge, Vedder Hall

This is an opportunity to interact and connect with other students, faculty and staff while gaining insights about the resources available from the Office of Multicultural Student Services, International Student Services, LGBT Awareness and the Women’s Resource Center. These offices are open and welcoming to all students.

1:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Residence Hall Meetings with Resident Assistant, Orientation Assistant and Junior Fellows – Part I

During the first hall meeting you will meet the other residents on your floor, as well as your RA, OAs and JF. As a group, you will learn what it means to be a member of the community and get to know others who will be instrumental in your first-year experience. This meeting is required for all first-year students. Meet on your hall.

1:45 - 3:30 p.m.

Orientation for Parents, Family and Friends Weis Center

President Brian C. Mitchell and his senior administrative colleagues advise your family and friends on the first year at Bucknell. Attendance is strongly encouraged.

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

University Welcome Reception for Parents, Students, Family and Friends Rooke Chapel lawn

(Rain location: Gerhard Fieldhouse, Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center)

This is an opportunity to meet President Brian C. Mitchell and Maryjane Mitchell, as well as representatives of many academic and administrative departments. You and your family can ask any last-minute questions.

2:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Color Games Intramural Fields

Do not miss the opportunity to participate in the messiest yet most entertaining part of orientation. Join your class as you cover your body with gallons of washable paint, engage in crazy relay races and slide down a giant slip-and-slide. Wear old clothes.

5:30 - 7 p.m.

Many Nations One Bucknell Sojka Lawn

(Rain location: Sojka Pavilion, Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center)

Enjoy delicious international food with lots of flair.

7 - 8 p.m. and 8:15 - 9:15 p.m.

Community Expectations and Standards

The student who enrolls at Bucknell enters a private community that is committed to academic and personal excellence. To support that commitment – and particularly in view of the highly residential nature of the campus – Bucknell sets forth clearly its expectations and standards (to which students concur) in the Pledge of Student Responsibility. This session presents a chance for you to reflect on that code.

2013, Transfer and Exchange Student Dinner in the Grove

(Rain location: Sojka Pavilion, Kenneth G. Langone Athletics and Recreation Center)

Enjoy a delicious meal in one of the most beautiful places on campus. Relax with your classmates under the oak trees as you get to know one another.

8 - 9:30 p.m.

Diversity Speaker: Maura Cullen Weis Center

This program will knock your socks off! How do the Wizard of Oz, magic, cars and puppets help us to understand diversity? We are caught in times of political correctness where “saying” the right thing is worlds away from “doing” the right thing. Considered one of the most inclusive sessions on diversity, you will explore race, gender, sexual orientation, age, socioeconomic class, religion, ability and size discrimination in an interactive format.

10 p.m. - 12:30 a.m.

The Library Unbound Bertrand Library

Learn about Library and Information Technology’s services and resources in a fun late-night setting. Make a night of it at the Bertrand Library while you snack on ice cream, listen to blues music from The Reverend Blue Jeans (featuring Mike Harvey ’88), learn how to line dance from the famous Glenn Stuck, and play Bingo to win great prizes for your residence hall room.
