You are requested to put your report in the form of a computer generated narrative document. It can either be mailed or faxed, or e-mailed to us at universitypress@bucknell.edu.

Please preface your report by briefly describing your familiarity with the field and by noting your present affiliation.

YOU MIGHT WISH TO ORGANIZE YOUR REPORT BY ADDRESSING THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- Comment on the author's abstract. If it is not adequate, please say briefly how it fails to summarize the actual content of the manuscript.
- Explain how the manuscript relates to existing scholarship. Does it appear to make advances in the field? Is the bibliography adequate and appropriate?
- What is the likely audience for the book?
- Explain the strengths and weaknesses of the manuscript. Address the quality and range of thought, the organization and effectiveness of the argument, and the clarity and persuasiveness of the exposition. If the manuscript seems eventually publishable but requires further work, make suggestions for revision.
- Add any additional comments or suggestions you would like to make.
- What is your recommendation for this manuscript? (a) Publish it; (b) Accept it conditionally; (c) Return it to the author with encouragement to revise and resubmit; or (d) Reject it.

If you have recommended that the manuscript be revised, would you be willing to examine it again?

Please sign and date the report.
