

Susquehanna Valley Summer Writers Institute 2009 June 8 - 19, 2009 Application/Instructions

Thank you for your interest in the Susquehanna Valley Summer Writers Institute 2009. We hope you will join us for ten days of fun and learning. This application has two parts. Complete the form, and on a separate sheet of paper, answer both Statement of Interest questions. Choose a professor who is familiar with your strengths and is willing to offer his or her support of your application. This professor cannot be one of the three Institute Faculty, Professors Faull, Gillespie, or Siewers.

Put both parts of your application together in one envelope and return it to the English Department office in the Vaughan Literature Building before 4:00 on April 27th.

Recommending professor (Not an institute faculty.)

Statement of Interest The Susquehanna Valley Summer Writer's Institute is a competitive, ten-day, fast-paced program to be held at Bucknell from June 8 - 19. During the program, participants will learn and write about the Susquehanna Confluence through interactive tours, lectures, discussions, and workshops. Participants are required to actively demonstrate a genuine interest in and enthusiasm for writing; a willingness to commit to an intense and rewarding experience. In the space provided, or on a separate piece of paper, please answer the following question. This is your opportunity to share your interests, talents, and unique personality with us. Please be thorough. Describe why you want to spend ten days as a participant in the Susquehanna Valley Summer Writers Institute? What do you hope to gain from the experience?
