Whether you want to transfer from a community college or another four-year college, Bucknell welcomes your interest. We encourage applications from bright, well-prepared students who will challenge the faculty and each other. In evaluating your application, we focus on the content of the high school and college experience, particularly your grades and recommendations. We are impressed by students who make a genuine contribution to the community through service and sensitivity to others. bucknell.edu/transfer

FINANCIAL AID FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

Financial aid for transfer students can be available, although Bucknell aid is limited. To apply, candidates must:

- Complete the 2019-20 College Scholarship Service (CSS) PROFILE at student.collegeboard.org/profile. CSS code: 2050
- Complete the 2019-20 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov, as it is required for all federal aid programs such as Federal Pell Grant, Federal Direct Loans and Federal Work-Study. FAFSA code: 003238
- Complete the 2019-20 Bucknell University Non-Custodial Parent Form if biological parents are separated/divorced.
- Submit to Bucknell's Office of Financial Aid a signed copy of the first two pages, as well as schedules A, B, C, D and K of your parents' 2017 Federal Tax Return (only federal — not state or local), and copies of parents' 2017 W-2 forms.

If you are admitted and decide to enroll, we will notify you by email if other tax or verification documents are required.

Bucknell's financial aid application deadlines are March 15 for fall consideration and November 1 for spring consideration.

Admitted transfer students who have completed their financial aid applications will be notified of their financial aid eligibility before the enrollment deposit is due.

*Note: International transfer students are not eligible for financial aid and must certify that they will assume all college costs.

ABOUT BUCKNELL

Established in 1846, Bucknell is highly selective, private, nonsectarian, co-educational (since 1883), residential and undergraduate, with a small graduate program.

With its green spaces, red brick buildings and striking vistas, Bucknell's 450-acre campus is a quintessential college environment in the heart of scenic central Pennsylvania. The University is located within three- to four-hours’ driving distance of Baltimore, New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C.

Academic Life

Bucknell offers more than 55 majors and 70 minors in the arts, engineering, humanities, management, sciences and social sciences. Your professors will be mentors and innovators in their fields who will challenge you to think critically, develop your ideas thoughtfully and apply what you learn.

Degrees

Undergraduate degrees offered: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, and five-year, dual degree in Engineering & the Liberal Arts.

Student Body

3,600 undergraduates and 60 graduate students, representing most states and more than 45 countries. The students of color enrollment is 21 percent and the international student enrollment is 7 percent.

Faculty

More than 350 full-time, tenure-line faculty. No classes are taught by graduate students.

Student-Faculty Ratio

9:1 – The average class size is 20 students per class.

Prepare for Success

Take advantage of career services such as advising, networking, mock interviews, internship support and employer fairs. The career placement rate for recent Bucknell graduates is consistently high: 97% of the Class of 2017 was employed, in graduate school, both employed and in graduate school or volunteering within nine months of graduation.
