Take a trip down memory lane...
Reunion Weekend Information

REGISTRATION To register for Reunion, visit bucknell.edu/reunion or fill out the enclosed form. An early bird discount is available for those who register before April 21. We will remove $10 from the price of each adult package. Pre-registration closes on May 19, and we strongly encourage you to take advantage of pre-registration so there’s a spot ready for you. When you arrive on campus, please visit our Registration Center, where you will pick up your materials for the weekend. Registration will be located in the Sojka Pavilion, Kenneth Langone Athletics and Recreation Center (KLARC). Parking is at the end of the building — look for signs! Registration hours: Thursday, 2–9 p.m.; Friday, 8 a.m.–midnight; Saturday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m.

REUNION STUDENT AMBASSADORS Current Bucknell students who have been chosen for their leadership and interest will be on hand to greet you during Reunion. These students will assist you at events, join you at class activities, and be eager to share their views of life at Bucknell today. Get to know them!

WEEKEND CAMPUS TRANSPORTATION Bucknell mini-buses will be available to transport guests around campus. Shuttle service will be available at peak hours throughout the weekend. A route and schedule will be available On-Site Registration.

ACCOMMODATIONS We offer housing in the residence halls for each Reunion class so you can stay close to your classmates. Housing is available Thursday through Sunday for $50 per single (one single bed) or $70 per double (two single beds) per night. Family housing is available Thursday through Sunday for $325. A family housing unit includes four single beds, efficiency kitchen and appliances, living room, and bath. Family housing fills quickly so register today. Local hotels also are filling up quickly. For an up-to-date list of other available accommodations, contact the Susquehanna River Valley Visitors Bureau Hotline at 800-574-2523 and say you will be attending Bucknell’s Reunion.

Reunion Packages

Our famous Reunion package deals allow you to pay one fee and be on the guest list for all of the events attached to that package. No tickets — no fuss! Just a stylish colored lanyard you can sport all weekend. Adults and juniors (ages 6–12) need packages to attend all events (please note: all junior packages include kid-size meals). Children 5 and under are free.

Occasionally, when room allows, we may accept payment at the door of an event. However, keep in mind that payment at the door is not guaranteed and, in most cases, will be more expensive than the package deals below. (See registration form for pricing.)

Events in the schedule are color coded according to the weekend’s package deals as follows:

- SILVER Package: Covers Thursday dinner through Sunday, including approximately 40 events and 8 meals.
- ORANGE Package: Covers Friday lunch through Sunday, including approximately 35 events and 6 meals.
- BLUE Package: Covers Friday night class parties that begin at 9 p.m. through Sunday, including over 25 events and 4 meals.
- WHITE Package: Covers Saturdays lunch through Sunday, including over 20 events and 3 meals.
- YELLOW Package: Covers Saturdays night class dinner and Tent Party/Jazz Bar.

BEGIN THE JOURNEY

Friday, 11:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
A fun-filled afternoon for Bucknell legacies who are in 8th or 9th grade. Students participate in a variety of activities throughout the day, interacting with current students, faculty, admissions, and alumni relations staff members. While the students are participating in the events of the day, parents are strongly encouraged to attend the Legacy Parent presentation given by a member of the admissions staff. Students and parents will reunite in time for dinner.

Pre-registration required: bucknell.edu/Legacy

For more information on Legacy Programs, please contact Patti Struble Flannery ‘86 at patiiflannery@bucknell.edu or 570-577-3633. A Bucknell legacy is defined as someone who is a direct descendant of a Bucknell alumnus/a. This relationship would include parents and step-parents, grandparents and step-grandparents, great-grandparents, and step-great-grandparents, etc.

SATURDAY ALL-CLASS EVENTS

SUNDAY, JUNE 1

All-Weekend Events

MEMORY DISPLAY AT BERTRAND LIBRARY

Take a walk down memory lane with Special Collections/University Archives. Stroll up to the Bertrand Library to view a selection of materials from years past that will be on display throughout the weekend. The library occupies the former C. Dreisbach’s Sons Hardware Store on the northwest corner of Fourth and Market streets and includes a large inventory of books, magazines and sportswear, as well as a Starbucks café. The historic portions of the three-story building were preserved and highlighted by design, including an antique freight elevator and much of the original brickwork and woodwork. Modern touches include a massive skylight, Wi-Fi connectivity and artwork throughout showcasing Bucknell’s history and iconic images. Shuttles will run all weekend, to and from the bookstore.

BARNES & NOBLE AT BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE

Following a careful, yearlong restoration, the Barnes & Noble at Bucknell University bookstore — featuring 29,500 square feet of books and other merchandise — re-opened on March 28, 2010 in downtown Lewisburg. The bookstore occupies the former C. Dreisbach’s Sons Hardware Store on the northwest corner of Fourth and Market streets and includes a large inventory of books, magazines and sportswear, as well as a Starbucks cafe. The historic portions of the three-story building were preserved and highlighted by design, including an antique freight elevator and much of the original brickwork and woodwork. Modern touches include a massive skylight, Wi-Fi connectivity and artwork throughout showcasing Bucknell’s history and iconic images. Shuttles will run all weekend, to and from the bookstore.

Q & A

Q: Where should I first go upon my arrival?
A: Pick up your registration materials and campus housing keys in the Registration Center, Sojka Pavilion, KLARC.

Q: What should I bring?
A: Suggested items include a phone, alarm clock, hangars, extra blankets, bug repellent, photos of family and friends, memorabilia from your college years, and a camera.

Q: What is the standard dress at Reunion?
A: Come as you are seems to be the dress motto for Reunion Weekend. Traditionally, the weekend is casual and relaxed with comfortable clothing. Class dinners offer a time to dress up — from dresses and ties and coats to walking shorts and polo shirts. Weather varies and, although we don’t suggest sweaters and winter coats, you should bring along a spring jacket and rain gear just in case.

Q: Is transportation available on campus?
A: Yes! A shuttle service will be running on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday to transport guests to their campus destinations. Look for shuttle stations around campus, a full map and shuttle schedule will be at Registration in Sojka Pavilion (KLARC).

Q: How do I know who’s coming to Reunion?
A: Check the Reunion website for registrants at bucknell.edu/reunion. The names are updated frequently.

Q: How can I find my friends at Reunion?
A: There will be class-specific message boards at Registration and in the class lounges to find out where friends are staying or to leave messages for them.

Q&A

Q: Are children welcome at Reunion Weekend?
A: Yes, most definitely! Your children can join in the weekend’s activities, including the Kids Rally, Family Fun Festival, Kids Night Out, and Sunflower Child Care on Saturday. Please remember to bring your own baby items: high chair, booster seat, baby food, formula, bottles, etc.

Q: What are the residence halls like?
A: Much the way you remember them (bed, desk, chair, bureau, closet). We’ll provide towels, washcloths, pillows, linens, and a light blanket. Please bring extra blankets, hangers, robes, and phones. Remember — community bathroom! Most rooms don’t have private bathrooms. Please note: Special needs or circumstances will be considered, but cannot be guaranteed, especially rooms with private baths.

Q: Is family housing available on campus?
A: Yes – in the Gateways and Mods. Family housing is reserved for families with young children who are staying two nights (Friday and Saturday). Family housing apartments are equipped with an efficiency kitchen and appliances, living room, bath, and four single beds. Family housing is first-come, first-served, and fills up quickly.

Q: Are there facilities for people with disabilities?
A: We try to meet the needs of all our guests. Please indicate on your reservation form if you have special needs or call 570-577-7300 for more information.

Pre-Registration Events

CANOE TRIPS Friday, 8 a.m., 11 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 4 p.m.
Join Allan ‘74 and Betsy Quant ‘74 in their 26’ Voyager canoes to enjoy the west branch of the Susquehanna River from Milton State Park Island, past Lewisburg, to the Chillisquaque Creek boat ramp. No experience needed, but be prepared to get feet and legs wet and muddy. $10 per person. Pre-registration required — space is limited.

ALUMNI GOLF TOURNAMENT Friday, 12:30 p.m.
Tournament begins Friday, May 30, at 12:30 p.m. PLEASE NOTE: Golf tournament fee is not included in any of the packages. The entry fee is $75 for each player which includes greens fee and cart. Please be sure to provide PGA handicap/average on your registration form. You may request to be placed into a certain foursome and we will do our best to accommodate you; however, we cannot guarantee requests! All players must be registered and have paid the fee to be considered for a foursome. Registration at the course begins at 11:30 a.m. Shuttle service from clubhouse to driving range is available beginning at 11:30 a.m. Lunch available at Knickers dining room in the clubhouse.

CLIMBUCKNELL CHALLENGE COURSE Saturday, 1 p.m.
Join Tony Stafford, Director of Outdoor Education and Leadership, for the challenge course which includes the climbing tower, zip line and high ropes elements. With the primary focus being “a classroom without walls,” ClimBucknell is designed to teach participants leadership, group dynamics, risk assessment, safety and, most importantly, something about themselves. The goal is to enhance life skills through challenging educational activities using problem solving and team development. It is hoped that individuals will leave with creative new ideas about themselves and how a team evolves. This is a great opportunity to explore the Cowan Forrest Brown Conference Center retreat property. Rain or shine! Pre-registration required — space is limited. $15 per person. To register call Emily at 570-577-7300. Van leaves from the ELC uphill entrance (Dent Drive).

BUCKNELL TODAY Saturday, 9:30 a.m.
Preview Bucknell’s programs, opportunities and the admissions process. How selective is Bucknell in the admissions landscape? Is it different for legacy students? High school students and parents are invited to this engaging session. Families should check in at the table in the uphill second floor lobby at 9:15 a.m. Pre-registration required at bucknell.edu/Legacy. Forum, 2nd floor, ELC

SOCCER CLINIC FOR ALUMNI KIDS Saturday, 3 p.m.
Hosted by the Bucknell men’s and women’s soccer teams, this free clinic is open to kids who will be attending kindergarten through 6th grade in the fall. Wear soccer shoes or tennis shoes (no need to bring shin guards unless you want to). Bucknell athletics will supply soccer balls. Pre-registration required — space is limited. Graham Field at Holmes Stadium

CHILDCARE OPTIONS

Sunflower Child Care, a licensed childcare agency located near the Bucknell Golf Club, will provide child care for Saturday night. This service is available for children between the ages of 6 weeks and 8 years during the hours of 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, May 31. Children are supervised in age-specific groups and siblings may be in different rooms. Sunflower will provide cribs or cots and limited snacks.

Kids Rally is an event run by an outside licensed childcare agency. Open to children 5–11 years, Kids Rally is on Saturday, May 31, from 10 a.m. to the end of Reunion Rally (approximately noon). $10 per child.

Kids Night Out is an event run by an outside licensed childcare agency. Open to children 5–11 years, Kids Night Out is on Saturday, May 31, from 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. Children are supervised in age-specific groups and enjoy age-appropriate games, crafts, pizza and snacks. $20 per child.

For all childcare options: There are limited spaces available, and reservations are first-come, first-served. You will receive confirmation of your reservation, or notification if space is full. Upon dropping children off, parents will be required to register their children and indicate on a form where they will be during the child care hours. Children must be picked up promptly at the end of the block of time for which they are enrolled. If you need to cancel childcare before Reunion, please call 570-577-7300. We cannot grant refunds after May 19. After you register for child care, a more detailed sheet will be sent to you including paperwork you’ll need to fill out and information on what to bring. Space is limited for all these activities. See registration form here or on-line at bucknell.edu/reunion to sign up.
