The turquoise waters and emerald coasts of the French and Italian rivieras have long enticed the Greeks, Etruscans, Phoenicians, Romans and Germanic peoples. The beau monde began flocking to the seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in the salubrious climate. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco—further influenced the development of these gems nestled between the Alps and the sea. The Côte d’Azur’s radiant quality of light captivated Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors, while the glamour of the region attracted great writers like Ernest Hemingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Rome, Italy
Once the center of a vast empire, this UNESCO World Heritage site is today the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican, to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome still humble modern visitors.

Costa Smeralda, Sardinia
Sardinia’s Costa Smeralda (“Emerald Coast”) features remote seaside villages, glamorous villas, a rugged landscape rising from exquisite white sand beaches, and azure waters plied by sleek luxury yachts. Anchor at Golfo di Aranci near Porto Cervo, a haven for celebrities.

The optional tour takes you to the well-preserved granite Nuraghe Albucciu, one of the Bronze-Age fortresses unique to Sardinia.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France

Photo this page: A fairy-tale image of towers and drawbridges, the medieval town of Carcassonne is protected by double walls nine to 15 feet thick.
Picturesque at any angle, Italy’s colorful Cinque Terre is a lovely sight from the sea, while each of its five terraced villages offers breathtaking views of the Ligurian coastline from the shore.
The distinctive early-14th-century tower of the Palazzo Vecchio and Filippo Brunelleschi’s magnificent 15th-century dome are consummate symbols of Florence and the Renaissance.

The capital of the Côte d’Azur is bursting with the colors that inspired Chagall and Matisse: the azure waters of the Mediterranean, terra cotta roofs, ocher and yellow houses, emerald green gardens, budding flower markets and marbled tile squares of Baroque and French theaters.

On the optional excursion, visit the Musée Marc-Chagall, home to the largest collection of the artist’s works, including the 17-canvas Biblical Message, and stroll the outdoor flower market.

Settled as a fishing village by monks, Cannes today is the quintessence of dazzling Riviera allure and host of the international film festival. The picturesque, palm-lined La Croisette promenade leads to the medieval lanes, churches and castle of Le Suquet. Visit nearby Vallauris, where Pablo Picasso discovered his passion for ceramics. Also, see the bay of Golfe-Juan, where Napoleon Bonaparte landed after his escape from exile and began his 100-day reign that ended at Waterloo.

Carcassonne
Settled on the frontier between France and Spain along ancient trade routes linking the Atlantic with the Mediterranean and Iberian Peninsula, the medieval core of Carcassonne, a UNESCO World Heritage site, has been occupied since the sixth century B.C., fortified by the Romans, conquered by the Visigoths in the fifth century, overrun by Persians in the seventh century, and repelled centuries of invading Franks and hoards of Barbarians, who each left their indelible influence on the extraordinary architectural and artistic heritage of the city. Walk the cobbled streets, admire the drawbridges and watchtowers and enjoy the joyous ringing of bells that evoke the gothic and medieval past of Carcassonne.

Barcelona, Spain
The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona are filled with the artistic treasures of Dali, Gaudí and Picasso, and Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture.

Prince Ranier III’s palace overlooks the Mediterranean from the 200-foot-high Rock of Monaco.
M.V. Tere Moana

The Five-Star M.V. Tere Moana entered service in 2013 under new ownership following a multimillion-dollar refurbishment. This exclusively chartered, deluxe, 90-passenger vessel fits the profile of small ship cruising perfectly and can cruise into ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

Eight of the Five-Star, ocean-view, spacious accommodations have private verandas. Each Stateroom features a large picture window, private marble- and teak-appointed bathroom with shower, one queen bed or two twin beds, luxurious European linens and amenities, individual climate control, robes and cotton slippers, satellite television, minibar, safe and hair dryer. Complimentary welcome flowers and fruit are provided in each stateroom upon arrival.

The elegant L’Etoile dining room and La Veranda restaurant accommodate all guests at a single, unassigned seating, and an attentive staff serves international cuisine featuring fresh local ingredients. Early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and dinner are served daily. Enjoy indoor or outdoor dining in La Veranda for breakfast and lunch and a consulting two-star Michelin-rated chef culinary creation is offered nightly in L’Etoile at dinner. Complimentary room service and wellness and vegetarian meal options are available. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are served throughout the cruise.

The inviting and spacious public areas are tastefully appointed and include a large lounge, where a program of enriching lectures is held, two bars, a comfortable library with computers, wireless Internet hotspots, spa, boutique and outdoor swimming pool.

The M.V. Tere Moana’s English-speaking crew provides courteous, professional service and sails with an onboard physician. There is one crew member for every 1.5 guests. The ship has an elevator.
