Dear Bucknellian:

Seventy-one years ago, on the morning of June 5, 1944, Supreme Allied Commander Dwight Eisenhower set into motion more than two million soldiers, 7,000 ships and 11,000 fighter planes deploying Operation Overlord, the secret Allied plan to liberate Europe. Eisenhower had the sole responsibility for this surprise invasion of Normandy, the largest amphibious assault ever attempted, that took place on June 6, 1944—forever known as D-Day.

Join fellow alumni and friends for the opportunity of a lifetime to meet distinguished expert Dwight David Eisenhower II, Senior Research Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania and grandson of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who will share his personal insights during an onboard lecture and accompany you to the hallowed beaches of Normandy to commemorate the 71st anniversary of the Allied Forces’ historic D-Day landings.

This exclusive small ship itinerary cruising aboard the state-of-the-art, Five-Star M.S. Le Boreal features the captivating historical legacies and enduring, dynamic cultures of European coastal civilizations. From the old-world sophistication of Portugal to the artistic riches of Spain’s Basque Country, to the rugged beauty of France’s Côte Sauvage and the United Kingdom’s charming Channel Islands, a riveting canvas of important yet seldom-visited seaports awaits you along Europe’s western coast.

Visit three UNESCO World Heritage sites, tour Oporto, the epicenter of world-famous port wine production, walk in the footsteps of ancient pilgrims on St. James Way in Santiago de Compostela, cruise Spain’s Costa Verde and call at France’s spectacular Belle-Île-en-Mer and the U.K.’s Channel Island of Guernsey. This unique seven-night cruise features an included cultural excursion in each port, along with two exclusive C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ options celebrating the traditional regional cuisine of these European coastal civilizations.

This is an extraordinary travel itinerary and an excellent value. I encourage you to book now while space and Early Booking Savings are available!

Thursday, April 23
Depart the U.S.

Lisbon, Portugal
Friday, April 24
Arrive in Lisbon and embark the Five-Star M.S. LE BORÉAL.

Leixões for Oporto
Saturday, April 25
Dock in Leixões, northern Portugal’s principal port, and transfer to Oporto, a former Roman outpost and the hub of the country’s world-famous port wine trade since the 13th century. Oporto’s historic city center, Ribeira, a neighborhood of medieval streets lined with colorful Portuguese houses, is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit the Gothic Church of São Francisco and the neoclassical Stock Exchange, with its intricately gilded Arabian Hall inspired by the famous Moorish Alhambra palace. The city showcases great artistic and architectural treasures that remain from the Moorish period, when previous Greek and Roman influences along with Jewish and Christian life created a coexistence of cultures in which disciplines like algebra, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture flourished.

During the “Robust Flavors Of Oporto” C’EST BON! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ option, enjoy a specially prepared lunch in Oporto’s oldest district, where a celebrity chef introduces you to traditional Portuguese specialties. Then, tour the cellars of a renowned port wine producer and enjoy a tasting among the seasoned oak casks. Attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and dinner this evening.

La Coruña, Spain, for Santiago de Compostela
Sunday, April 26
On today’s excursion, travel into the oak and pine-forested hills of Galicia, one of Spain’s self-governed principalities influenced by its Roman, Germanic, Moorish and Castilian heritage and infused with an unexpected Celtic atmosphere. Golden-hued granite buildings grace its well-preserved capital, Santiago de Compostela, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where almost completely pedestrianized streets lead to the expansive Plaza del Obradoiro and the city’s grand Romanesque cathedral, a national monument, built to enshrine the tomb of St. James, who preached on the Iberian Peninsula. A pilgrimage destination since the Middle Ages, the church is recognized for its distinctive Baroque façade, original medieval portico and incomparable Churrigueraesque altar.

Santander for Bilbao
Monday, April 27
From Santander, transfer to Bilbao, surrounded by the verdant Basque Mountains. Discover this dynamic and sophisticated city with a stop in the historic Charming harbors and stunning beaches dot the rocky coastlines and quaint seaside hamlets of France’s Belle-Île-en-Mer.

“No place overseas holds more significance for Americans and Canadians than the landing sites for the Normandy invasion on D-Day, June 6, 1944. Sharing the insights of my grandfather, Dwight Eisenhower, and walking these hallowed grounds where our allied troops, in his words, successfully assured ‘the elimination of Nazi tyranny...and security for ourselves in a free world,’ was a personal highlight. This European Coastal Civilizations travel program is indeed a cruise rich in history, set amid the breathtaking beauty of western Europe’s coastlines.”
—David Eisenhower
casco viejo (old quarter) and the promenade of El Arenal, a popular route for Bilbainos’ evening paseos (leisurely strolls). Enjoy a guided architectural tour of the iconic Frank Gehry-designed Guggenheim Museum of Contemporary Art with time to stroll through the galleries of modern and contemporary art.

Basque cuisine is a ritual of love passed down through the generations. During the “Pintxos: A Basque Tradition” optional excursion, sample a variety of traditional Basque pintxos (tapas) in a 16th-century caserio (country house) located in an idyllic setting just outside of Bilbao.

Belle-Île-en-Mer, France
Tuesday, April 28
This afternoon, call at Belle-Île-en-Mer, France’s “Beautiful Island,” off the coast of Brittany. Much of the island’s current population is descended from repatriated Acadian colonists who returned to France from Acadia (Nova Scotia) in the mid 18th century. See the charming island community of Le Palais and visit the 18th-century Vauban Citadel, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Admire the unique beauty of the island’s stunning Côte Sauvage on a panoramic tour, highlighting the “wild coast” that has inspired artists from the time of the Romans to Claude Monet, Auguste Rodin and Henri Matisse as well as author Alexandre Dumas in his adventures of The Three Musketeers.

Guernsey, Channel Islands, U.K.
Wednesday, April 29
An English outpost located off the coast of France, Guernsey is a fascinating mosaic of fishing villages, greenhouses and fields dotted with its ubiquitous chestnut brown and white dairy cows. The island’s distinct culture is a delightful amalgam of English tradition and French lifestyle. Its capital, St. Peter Port, is an old Regency town distinguished by granite buildings and wrought-iron garden railings. It was here that Victor Hugo lived in exile (1855-1870) and wrote Les Misérables.

On an afternoon panoramic tour around Guernsey’s dramatic coastline, see the remnants of Germany’s occupation (1940-1945) of the Channel Islands, a launching point for invading Great Britain during World War II, and Fort Hommet, the permanent fortifications constructed to keep a German foothold on Europe. Enjoy time at leisure to explore the quaint cobblestone streets and picturesque harbor of St. Peter Port.

This evening attend historian David Eisenhower’s exclusive onboard lecture while cruising the Normandy coast.

Caen, France, for Normandy Beaches

Thursday, April 30

Dock in Caen and travel through the scenic countryside to the historic Normandy beaches. In the company of David Eisenhower, walk where Allied forces landed under the direction of his grandfather, Supreme Allied Commander, Dwight D. Eisenhower, on June 6, 1944. Step respectfully among the solemn crosses and Stars of David in the American Military Cemetery at St. Laurent, overlooking Omaha Beach. Envision the brave American rangers who scaled 200-foot heights to capture German gun emplacements at Pointe du Hoc.

See remnants of Mulberry Harbor, constructed to support Allied landings, and then view exhibits chronicling the campaign at the D-Day Museum that overlooks the beach at Arromanches. Alternatively, you may choose to see the famous 230-foot-long Bayeux Tapestry, a stunning visual chronicle of the Norman conquest of 1066.

Join the Captain on board the ship for a Farewell Reception this evening.

Honfleur/U.S.

Friday, May 1

Disembark the ship in Honfleur and continue on the Paris and Giverny Post-Cruise Option or to Paris for your return flight to the U.S.

Since the early 1200s, the formidable Castle Cornet has stood guard over the town and harbor of St. Peter Port on the island of Guernsey.

Monet cultivated brightly colored, untamed gardens that inspired many of his most famous paintings at his home in Giverny.

Lisbon Pre-Cruise Option

Lisbon’s charm exudes from its illustrious palaces, magnificent churches and an impressive castle that link the city to its rich cultural heritage. A historic gateway for world exploration and Portugal’s intimate, welcoming capital, Lisbon is the ideal prelude to your cruise. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Jerónimos Monastery, a magnificent 16th-century monument, and the nearby sleepy village of Sintra, where the former Moorish fort is the last remaining medieval royal palace in Portugal. Accommodations are for two nights in the deluxe DOM PEDRO PALACE HOTEL, located near the Estrela Gardens and the 18th-century Basilica da Estrela.

Paris • Giverny Post-Cruise Option

Enjoy a walking tour of Honfleur’s medieval old town before continuing to Giverny for a visit to Claude Monet’s garden and house, where he painted many of his iconic masterpieces. Transfer to Paris, the “City of Light,” for two nights in the Five-Star INTERCONTINENTAL PARIS LE GRAND HOTEL, ideally located adjacent to the Opéra Garnier and a short walk to the Louvre.

Pre- and Post-Cruise Options and Optional Excursions are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

The delightful harbor in Honfleur that inspired French Impressionists Eugène Boudin and Claude Monet continues to captivate artists today.

David Eisenhower

There can be no more fitting way to mark the 71st anniversary of the Allied Forces D-Day invasion than to walk on the Normandy beaches liberated by American and Allied forces. Attend a dynamic lecture and be accompanied to the beaches by our expert historian, intimately familiar with one of the most powerful world leaders of the 20th century and World War II.

DWIGHT DAVID EISENHOWER II, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, is a noted historian of World War II and the Cold War. His 1986, 900-page best seller, Eisenhower: At War 1943-1945, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in history. David is Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and a Public Policy Fellow at the Annenberg School of Communication and the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, where he teaches “Communication and the Presidency.”

The Normandy Beaches

In a pivotal moment in the history and culture of Europe’s Atlantic coastal regions, on June 6, 1944, Supreme Allied Commander Dwight Eisenhower gave the order for 133,000 Allied troops to land along a 50-mile stretch of heavily-fortified French coastline. The invasion, known as Operation Overlord, was supported by 7,000 ships and 11,000 aircraft, and by day’s end, had gained the Allies a foothold on the continent to begin their march to free Europe. A portal to the region that altered the new world order, Normandy brings history to life.
