¡Cuba!

An Extraordinary People-to-People Experience by Land and by Sea
aboard the Exclusively Chartered Deluxe Small Sailing Ship M.Y. LE PONANT

January 19 to 28, 2017
Dear Bucknellian:

Be among the first to enjoy this extraordinary people-to-people experience. Explore the breadth of Cuba in depth—from east to west, by land and by sea—while interacting daily with friendly and inquisitive Cubans from all walks of life who are quick to smile and talk openly with you about their day-to-day lives, culture, work and family traditions. You will also gain insight into the lasting influence of Spain; the glamorous playground that once drew celebrities, gangsters, movie stars, writers and heads of state; and the legacy of Fidel Castro and the island’s emerging future. Explore the vivid and mesmerizing landscape, which has lodged itself into the imagination of artists, dancers and writers, who in turn infuse all aspects of Cuban culture with their irresistible zest for life.

Delight in all that Cuba has to offer during this exceptional opportunity while experiencing seafaring in its most timeless form—beneath 16,000 square feet of billowing white sails aboard the exclusively chartered, three-masted M.Y. LE PONANT. Enjoy a refined yet casual lifestyle on board this intimate, deluxe small sailing ship featuring only 32 Staterooms—all ocean-view. The M.Y. LE PONANT is able to call in smaller ports that are inaccessible to larger ships, making this combination of sea and land travel the best and most comprehensive way to see Cuba. Following the six-night cruise, enjoy accommodations for three nights in Havana’s comfortable MELIA COHIBA HOTEL.

Discover the full portrait of Cuba on this intimate cultural exchange and experience the true character and traditions of the island. Explore Havana, with its vibrant spirit, iconic Malecón and beautifully restored Old City and fortifications, a UNESCO World Heritage site. See the historical center of Cienfuegos, settled in 1819 and built in a neoclassical style; explore the rarely visited colonial town of Trinidad; and visit Santiago de Cuba’s San Pedro de la Roca castle—all UNESCO World Heritage sites. Admire Cuba’s misty Viñales Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site replete with lush green tobacco fields, striking karst formations and the azure sea along the island’s stunning coastline, and visit the dynamic city of Santa Clara in Cuba’s heartland.

This travel program offers a full schedule of events, all of which involve significant people-to-people exchanges with Cubans from diverse backgrounds who reflect this island’s unique rhythm of daily life and are eager to share their life experiences with you.

We do hope you will join us for this unforgettable experience!

Cuba by Land and by Sea
Discovering the Island through its People

Welcome to the vivacious and remarkable island of Cuba, where history is rich and exploration, discovery and tenacity run deep through the heart of this enigmatic country. When Christopher Columbus first landed in Cuba in 1492, he was met by native Arawak Indians. Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar followed on Columbus’ second voyage and settled the island, using deep Havana Harbor for a transit point back to Spain. During the heyday of seafaring pirates it became a smuggler’s haven, and when slavery was implemented during the sugarcane industry boom in the early 1800s, it left an indelible mark on the history of the Caribbean’s largest island. Visiting Cuba today, it is easy to see the culture is still steeped in a blend of European, African, Asian and Middle Eastern influences. Along with the more recent historical events, including being a protectorate of the United States and a lightning rod for 20th-century politics, Cuba is transitioning into a promising new dawn as it reshapes its future relationship with the United States. As a nation, Cuba is a lively and artistic tropical island with residents said to be amongst the most welcoming and charming people in the world, who have myriad ways of revealing the secrets of their proud country to you. This specially designed itinerary by land and by sea has been carefully planned to include the following exclusive PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS to enhance your journey across the breadth of Cuba:

♦ Hear it from the Experts! Experienced, English-speaking Cuban hosts will accompany you throughout the program and discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Cuba. Interact with local Cuban experts including musicians, artists, farmers, academics and architects.

♦ Meet lifelong residents of Cuba, who will share their perspectives on daily life.

♦ Savor authentic Cuban cuisine in family-operated paladares—in-home restaurants.

♦ Learn more about preservation efforts in Old Havana, tobacco and organic farming in verdant Pinar del Río and Cuba’s social welfare system in Santa Clara.

Miami, FL, U.S./Santiago de Cuba, Cuba - Day 1
Depart Miami on your short flight to Cuba. Upon arrival in Santiago de Cuba, meet your experienced, English-speaking Cuban hosts and guides, who will accompany you on people-to-people exchanges and be part of your immersion into their way of life.

Cuba’s second largest city is perhaps the island’s most vibrant and culturally rich, with its lively music and attractive colonial architecture. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of Castillo San Pedro de la Roca (El Morro), a 17th-century fortress built to protect the important port of Santiago de Cuba Bay.

This afternoon, embark M.Y. LE PONANT and attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception this evening.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:

♦ Enjoy a performance by an all-female Cuban vocal quartet.

♦ Dine in a local paladar for lunch.

Santiago de Cuba - Day 2
On the walking tour, see Céspedes Park including historic City Hall, where Fidel Castro announced victory of the Cuban Revolution in 1959, and 15th-century Casa de Diego Velázquez, the oldest standing house in Cuba.

The Castillo de los Tres Reyes Magos del Morro, built in the 16th century under the control of Spain and named for the biblical Magi, dominates the entrance to Havana Bay. Inset above: Eighteenth-century Plaza Mayor in Trinidad.
Enjoy picturesque views of the city and refreshments from the rooftop terrace of the illustrious Hotel Casa Granda.

Visit the expansive Cementerio Santa Ifigenia, the grandiose final resting place of Cuban national hero and important Latin American literature figure José Martí; Emilio Bacardi Moreau, known for his namesake rum; and Compay Segundo, guitarist of the Buena Vista Social Club.

After lunch on board the ship, view imposing Revolution Square and historic San Juan Hill, a pivotal site during the Spanish-American War. Tour the Casa del Caribe, a vibrant, multifaceted institute that celebrates Afro-Cuban music, dance and culture. See the original Bacardi rum factory, first opened in 1868, and enjoy a traditional Cuban rum tasting.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichment:
- Enjoy a colorful dance performance of the rumba, salsa and other traditional forms of Cuban entertainment at Casa del Caribe.

Santiago de Cuba - Day 3
From Santiago de Cuba, travel to the Basílica de Nuestra Señora del Cobre to visit La Virgen de la Caridad (Our Lady of Charity), the patron saint of Cuba, a brilliant shrine and Cuba’s most sacred pilgrimage site. Tour the holy basilica, where Pope Francis recently visited, and listen to the captivating legend behind this revered shrine.

Walk through the lush Jardín de los Helechos, featuring over 350 species of ferns and 90 types of orchids. Return to the ship for lunch, then enjoy an afternoon at leisure in Santiago de Cuba.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichment:
- Interact with local Cuban pilgrims at the Our Lady of Charity shrine.

Cruising the Caribbean Sea - Day 4
Enjoy informative onboard discussions and lectures about Cuban history and culture while at sea.

Trinidad - Day 5
Developed from the wealth of the sugar industry in the 19th century, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Trinidad retains much of its colonial charm, with terra-cotta tiled roofs, pastel-hued houses, cobblestone streets and ornate tiled courtyards. Walk through 18th-century Plaza Mayor, and visit the neoclassical Museo Romántico and Palacio Cantero, two museums showcasing the history of Trinidad’s residents.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Enjoy lively rumba and salsa performances at the Palenque de los Congos Reales, an outdoor music center devoted to traditional Cuban music and dancing.
- Visit the authentic Casa Chichi, a multigenerational pottery workshop established in 1892 that still uses clay sourced from caves.

Cienfuegos for Santa Clara - Day 6
Known as the “Pearl of the South,” the UNESCO World Heritage-designated colonial harbor city of Cienfuegos was founded in 1819 by French settlers from Louisiana and Bordeaux while located in a Spanish territory, which has made for a fascinating blend of history and local culture today.

From Cienfuegos, travel to Santa Clara, the gateway to Cuba’s historically and agriculturally rich central region. Visit a Casa de Abuelos for a unique opportunity to learn more about social welfare in Cuba from the active senior citizen residents and staff.

Santa Clara, long associated with Ernesto “Che” Guevara, has been shaped by the most prestigious university outside Havana and features one of the country’s most spectacular grand colonial theaters constructed in 1885. See the beautiful Teatro La Caridad, where famed musicians such as Enrico Caruso once performed, and visit the impressive Che Guevara Monument and the History Museum of the Revolution.

This evening, attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- In a Casa de Abuelos, elder Cubans and staff will introduce you to a time-honored Cuban dance tradition, the danzón.
- Enjoy lunch in the Auténtica Pergola paladar.

Cienfuegos/Havana - Day 7
Disembark this morning in Cienfuegos. Once a trading port for sugar cane, coffee and tobacco, this attractive colonial port city was built in a Neoclassical style from the wealth of these industries, and its original grid layout plan is an incredible example of early urban planning. Visit the eclectic Teatro Tomás Terry, which hosted its first opera in 1890.

En route to Havana, enjoy lunch in a local paladar, then visit Finca Vigía, the former home of Ernest Hemingway, affectionately called “Papa” by locals. Here, he wrote The Old Man and the Sea, based on a local fisherman, and For Whom the Bell Tolls.

The Basílica de Nuestra Señora del Cobre outside of Santiago de Cuba is Cuba’s most sacred pilgrimage site.
This evening, check into Havana’s MELIA COHIBA HOTEL.

Havana - Day 8

Cuba’s capital, the early-20th-century “Paris of the Caribbean,” remains arguably one of a kind, mixing impressive urban architecture and culture with an earthy, informal vibe and a lively arts and music scene, while retaining a distinctly vintage feel bolstered by the prevalence of 1950s American-made automobiles fondly called “Yank tanks” by the locals who painstakingly maintain them.

The Spanish colonial core of Habana Vieja, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is a colorful neighborhood of winding cobblestone streets, pastel-hued houses and picturesque squares filled with architectural beauty, including the bayside Plaza de Armas, the site where San Cristóbal de la Habana was founded in 1514.

Havana’s downtown district of Vedado is a mix of old and new, including the University of Havana, the pre-revolutionary Capitolio reminiscent of the U.S. Capitol, the iconic Malecón (oceanfront promenade) and the legendary Hotel Nacional de Cuba. See Revolution Square, where Fidel Castro gave his famous eight-hour May Day speeches.

Visit the community of Jaimanitas, home to the Hemingway Marina and one of Cuba’s best known artists, José Rodríguez Fuster, a sculptor and painter whose distinct works of art are inspired by Antoni Gaudí.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
- Local architects and architectural restoration scholars discuss the preservation and evolution of art and architecture on a walk through Old Havana.
- Interact with residents of José Rodriguez Fuster’s artistic community.
- Enjoy an invigorating performance by a local stomp band.
- Enjoy a reception and dinner in a paladar in Old Havana.

Havana/Pinar del Río and Viñales Valley - Day 9

The striking Viñales Valley in Cuba’s westernmost province of Pinar del Río is designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Known for its natural beauty, the valley is a much photographed and painted 270-square-mile plain surrounded by limestone karst hills called mogotes. The farmland here is among Cuba’s richest, and the ancient agricultural practices produce robust coffee and some of the world’s best tobacco, products central to Cuban history and identity.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS:
- Meet a traditional tobacco farmer and cigar-roller in Vuelta Abajo, the country’s tobacco heartland. Spend time with his family as he welcomes you into his home to sample Cuban coffee.
- Tour an organic farm and enjoy a discussion with the farmer on the growth and sale of crops as you explore his gardens. Afterward, share a homestyle lunch with his family, an enriching opportunity.
- In the historic town of Pinar del Río, visit a community art project where creativity is fostered in young people with Down syndrome.

Havana/Miami, FL, U.S. - Day 10

Check out of the hotel and transfer to the airport for your return flight to Miami.

Miami Hotel Pre-Program Option

Arrive in Miami the day before your flight to Cuba. Enjoy overnight accommodations in the DOUBLETREE MIAMI AIRPORT HOTEL, a complimentary welcome drink, Cuba briefing and a convenient shuttle to the airport.

Pre-Program Option is available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

Cuban artist José Rodríguez Fuster transformed his house in Havana with kaleidoscopic sculptures and mosaics.
DELUXE CHARTERED SMALL SAILING SHIP M.Y. LE PONANT

The intimate, three-masted deluxe m.y. Le Ponant offers an unforgettable and captivating sailing experience—seafaring in its most traditional form. When the 16,000 square feet of majestic sails are unfurled, the ship’s sleek lines and elegant beauty evoke the Golden Age of Sail. A harmonious alliance of nautical tradition and great style, this small ship is designed to cruise into the most secluded harbors where larger vessels cannot reach, and the refined yet casual lifestyle on board is manifest in the warm charm of each Stateroom and in the crew’s impeccable service.

Each of the 32 ocean-view Staterooms features a window or porthole, private bathroom with shower, one fixed queen bed or one queen bed convertible into two twin beds, individual climate control, satellite flat-screen television, Wi-Fi, direct-dial telephone, safe, minibar, dressing table, hair dryer and plush robes. Meals feature superb international and Cuban specialties and are each served in a single, unassigned seating. Breakfast and lunch can be enjoyed alfresco in the indoor-outdoor Le Diamant Panoramic Restaurant, and dinner is served in the elegant, wood-paneled Karukéra Restaurant. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are served throughout the cruise.

The comfortable public areas showcase the ship’s tasteful sophistication favoring life in the open air. There are two lounges, a library and expansive open-air decks that extend the full length of the vessel, and there is an observation platform just above sea level for optional water sports and viewing marine life. Fully equipped Zodiacs are used to facilitate landings. There is a doctor onboard the ship.

The courteous, English-speaking crew provide attentive, professional service, with a guest-to-crew ratio of less than two to one, and they are always delighted to answer your questions about their sailing maneuvers. m.y. Le Ponant will certainly captivate anyone who steps aboard its gleaming timber decks.
