Your Expedition Leader

Admiralty is typically rigorous, but swimming is an Orbridge Expedition Leader at your side at all times. When viewing a humpback whale off the bow, your Expedition Leader may offer insights into the whale’s behavior and provide a perspective on marine mammals.

You may experience the majestic glaciers of Alaska, including the Chile, which flows from the interior of the glacier to the Pacific Ocean.

Bucknell University Alumni Association

Best known for its world-class museums and natural history collections, Bucknell University is a community of learners. Presentations from college faculty, including paleontologists, botanists, anthropologists, zoologists, and art historians, are all part of the program. Bucknell University Professors of Environmental Studies will join us for this tour, and we’ll enjoy a college faculty-organized program on every aspect of the Northwest Passage. Professors will also share a wealth of knowledge on Northwest culture and history. For a Faculty Program, no PG Planet certification is required, just a love for this area and a desire to learn.

Registration, Deposits and Final Payment.

Deposit: A non-refundable deposit is due of 25% of the airfare plus the full land portion for each participant (8 days of Northern Wonders $1,995; 7 days $1,495). Payment plans are available and may be paid in two installments. The second installment is due 90 days prior to departure. Registration is not confirmed until payment is received. Full payment must be received 90 days prior to the scheduled departure date.

Final Payment: All deposits are due 90 days prior to the scheduled departure date. The final payment for all participants must be received by Bucknell University Alumni Association. If full payment has not been received by the 90 day deadline, registration will be canceled; deposits will be forfeited.

What Guests Are Saying...

Overall this was a stunningly memorable trip. The food was wonderful and our guide was very knowledgeable. We’ve learned so much about the area and the history... I am so lucky to have experienced this adventure with such a great group.

~增高 E., Colorado Springs, CO

What can be better than being on the water, surrounded by glaciers, seeing animals, beautiful mountains, and being able to lean over and see the bottom of the ship? This trip is an opportunity of a lifetime.

~ Paula K., Rio Rancho, NM

Thank you for providing such wonderful educational opportunities to Bucknell University alumni. You do a wonderful job of selecting exciting destinations and applicants who add to the overall experience. Bucknell University Alumni Association is an organization I will strive to support for years to come.
