

Bucknell Community Dinners

Share a meal
 Discuss issues relevant to the Bucknell community
 Get to know each other outside the classroom or office
 Build real community

What: Monthly Dinner and Conversation for Bucknell students, staff, faculty interested in developing and being a part of a more inclusive campus community

Why:

- To help us create and maintain a more inclusive, culturally competent Bucknell University community
- To connect those interested in building community and addressing institutional concerns
- To learn and respond to what the campus community thinks we need to discuss
- To share and learn from each other

Hosted by a different campus group* each month

Hosting Responsibilities

- Identifying a topic for conversation (should focus in some way on diversity and inclusion)
- Planning the evening's conversation (opening framing, facilitating transition to table discussions, wrap up)
- Inviting campus community members
- Participating in the conversation

* Hosting group does not need to be an "official" group; the host can simply be a group of interested people.

Co-Hosting: President's Diversity Council (will reserve space, arrange for meal, invite campus, attend)

Community Dinners 2016-2017

September 27: Finger on the Pulse: The United States' Response to the Orlando Massacre

October 25: Bridging Worlds: What Does It Mean To Be an International Bucknellian?

November 15: Exploring Spiritual Identities: How Can People's Faith Identities Fit In at a Secular University?

January 16: 'Beloved' Community Dinner
 A Movement Like Kaepernick: How One Individual Can Spark Possibilities for Peace

February 21: Disability: The Invisible Identity

March 28: Breaking Gender: Re-imagining Gender Equity, Justice and Health

April 19: Actually...It IS all about you!
 A Conversation About the Role of Dominant Groups in Combating Oppression