Study Abroad in GREECE Spring 2019!

BUCKNELL AND PENN STATE IN ATHENS
directed by Penn State Professor(s) Mark Munn and Mary Lou Munn additional courses will be taught by well-known American and Greek adjunct professors.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
- Courses in Classics/Archaeology and History
- Excursions to Olympia, Delphi & the Greek Islands
- No foreign language required; Beginning Modern Greek course optional
- International travel & field trips included in your Bucknell tuition
- Open to second-semester sophomores and juniors
- Opportunity to volunteer with refugee communities
- Satisfy Global Connections and Foreign Language for the CCC
- Your financial aid follows you!

 INFORMATION SESSIONS:
Please attend a 50-minute information session:

Wednesday, February 28, 2018
Noon - 12:50 PM
VAUG 125 – Willard Smith Library

Monday, March 26, 2018
Noon - 12:50 PM
VAUG 125 – Willard Smith Library

Thursday, April 05, 2018
Noon - 12:50 PM
VAUG 125 – Willard Smith Library

Tuesday, April 10, 2018
Noon - 12:50 PM
LANG 241D – Meeting Room

A light lunch will be provided.

PLAN NOW to be part of this unique program!

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

PROFESSOR STEPHANIE LARSON
Director, Bucknell in Athens
Classics and Mediterranean Studies stephanie.larson@bucknell.edu

JENNIFER ELLIS FRITZ
Program Coordinator-Bucknell in Athens
Associate Director, Office of Global & Off-campus Education
jef025@bucknell.edu
Experience
Athens!

Abroad in GREECE Spring 2019!

PROGRAM SPECIFICS

Housing: Students will be housed in shared flats in central Athens, each with cooking facilities.

Facilities: Classes will be held onsite and at the Athens Centre, an educational facility located in central Athens.

Field Trips: Beyond the exploration of sites in Athens, the program involves visits to Olympia, Delphi, the Greek islands, and other sites in Greece. Students are encouraged to travel independently as time permits.

Volunteering: Opportunities for students to volunteer with refugee communities in and around Athens may be arranged by the program.

Costs: Program Fee (billed to the Bucknell student account):

- Bucknell tuition
- Athens room rate (adjusted to Bucknell housing costs)

Bucknell in Athens-Spring 2019 Application Deadline: September 6, 2018

THE PROGRAM FEE COVERS THE FOLLOWING:

- Academic Instruction
- Housing
- Transportation (including airfare): New York/Athens round trip
- Program-related field trips, including transportation and museum entry fees

THE FOLLOWING EXPENSES ARE NOT COVERED:

- Transportation between New York City or Newark and your home
- Meals
- Books
- Independent travel
- Personal expenses

Note: All information on this flyer is subject to change in accordance with Bucknell University policy, procedure and programmatic updates.