Downton Abbey ♦ Blenheim Palace

August 9 to 17, 2019

Dear Bucknellian:

For many, the unspoiled nature of England, Shakespeare’s “blessed plot,” lies in the traditional ways of town and country life found in its pastoral villages, picturesque countrysides and idyllic university towns. Experience the time-honored quest for knowledge as played out in the esteemed classrooms, dining halls and quadrangles of Oxford and Cambridge and learn more about how the legacy of yesteryear transcends time to form the roots of contemporary country life as you interact with village residents. Visit the hallowed grounds of the Cambridge American Cemetery and Memorial, honoring fallen American soldiers, and at Bletchley Park, see where Allied cryptographers cracked the German Enigma code during World War II. Uncover the deep history of Highclere Castle, the Victorian manor house also known as “Downton Abbey.” Meet Lady Henrietta Spencer-Churchill, cousin to Winston Churchill, when calling at stunning Blenheim Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Savor the extraordinary experience of traveling in a small, merry group through these university towns and through the Cotswold region—town and country juxtaposed—discovering the lasting heritage and character of England’s historic academic centers, stately country manor houses and enchanting villages.

Stroll the venerated grounds of the University of Cambridge; relive history in the 14th-century Eagle Pub, where the discovery of DNA was announced; and marvel at the vast collection of the University’s library. Explore the traditions of Oxford and become more familiar with the lives of preeminent authors and icons of English history who were educated here or hailed from the surrounding region. Admire the picture-perfect scenery of English flower gardens, gentle streams and thickets of ivy, framed by the bucolic Cotswold landscape with thatched-roof cottages and medieval churches built from the wealth of the wool trade. Learn about contemporary life from the local ladies and gents during the exclusive TOWN & COUNTRY LIFE® FORUM. Experience the best of quintessential English culture while staying in an elegant landmark, Five-Star hotel with an award-winning menu in the heart of Oxford and a centrally located hotel in Cambridge within walking distance of the university quadrangle.

Cambridge, England

Experience the paragon of collegiate charm at Cambridge University's Emmanuel College, where trees shade well-manicured lawns and duck-filled ponds, and time-honored buildings form quadrangles dating from medieval times though the late 20th century. CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:

Sip a tea or coffee in the famous 14th-century Eagle Pub, just as Watson and Crick might have when they announced to the world they had discovered DNA, the secret of life.

Bletchley Park

Led by Alan Turing, a Cambridge graduate and King's College fellow, both military personnel and civilians devised automatic machinery to decrypt top-secret communications from the Axis powers, most notably those that had been encrypted with the German Enigma and Tunny cipher machines. Expert historians suggest that the Bletchley Park code breakers may have shortened the war by as much as two years.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT:

Tour this influential complex, England's best-kept World War II secret, and learn more about the top secret resident cryptographers.

Highclere Castle

Scenes from Downton Abbey were also filmed in Bampton, one of the oldest villages in England.

Cotswold Villages

The gently meadowed hillsides, thatched-roof cottages and country paths found in the charming Cotswolds evoke the tales of an idyllic storybook. These pastoral villages span the boundaries of Old English shires—counties established during the Norman Conquest of England.

Blenheim Palace

Sir Winston Churchill remarked that he made two of the most important decisions of his life at Blenheim Palace—to be born and to marry.
