

THE CHINA INSTITUTE

NATIONAL U.S. CHINA RELATIONS

The Bucknell China Institute is pleased to host CHINA Town Hall 2023, a national conversation on how the U.S.-China relationship affects our communities. Sponsored by the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations.

CHINA TOWN HALL
LOCAL CONNECTIONS, NATIONAL REFLECTIONS

U.S. AMBASSADOR TO CHINA

NICHOLAS BURNS

October 11, 2023

7:00 P.M. EDT

LIVE WEBCAST

Please join us on

Wednesday, October 11, 7-9 p.m.

in the ELC Center Room 256. The live webcast can be accessed here;

<https://www.ncuser.org/livestream/>

The featured speaker for CHINA Town Hall 2023 is the current U.S. Ambassador to China, Nicholas Burns. Nominated by President Biden and confirmed by the Senate, he was sworn into office on December 22, 2021.

Following the webcast, Lawrence C. Reardon, Professor of Political Science at the University of New Hampshire, will join the in-person audience in the Center Room via Zoom for a talk and Q&A. The title of his talk is "Xi Jinping and the New Sino-Centric World Order". Light refreshments will be served.

Lawrence C. Reardon

Professor of Political Science

Lawrence C. Reardon is professor of political science at the University of New Hampshire (B.A., Johns Hopkins 1979; Ph.D. Columbia 1991). His books include The Reluctant Dragon (University of Washington, 2002), A Third Way (Harvard, 2020) and co-edited The Vatican, and the Nation-State (Georgetown, 2006). He has published in China Quarterly, China Law and Government, Journal of Contemporary China, China Business Review, The Journal of Shenzhen University, The Journal of Current Chinese Affairs, The Oxford Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion, and The Cambridge History of Nationhood and Nationalism. Currently, he is co-editing China and Integrated Deterrence (Cambria Press) and writing a chapter on China's Belt and Road for The Great Power Competition (Springer).

Bucknell
UNIVERSITY

Sponsored by Bucknell China Institute and the College of Arts & Sciences.

