

Suggested Documentation for Travel in H-1B Status

* Note: This information is provided strictly as a guide and is not legal advice. The specific travel documentation that is required for foreign nationals may vary depending on the facts and circumstances in each case, including the nature of the travel, visa status, and travel location. If you are applying for a visa for reentry, you should contact the embassy or consulate regarding documentation requirements and to make an appointment.

- Valid passport
- Unexpired H-1B visa stamp in passport for reentry
- I-797 approval notice
- Copy of H-1B petition (form I-129) and attachments
- Recent paystubs
- Letter confirming current employment and expectation of return (contact Lynda Meinke at lmeinke@bucknell.edu to request a letter)

* Every time you enter or re-enter the U.S., you should retrieve your online I-94 record of admission, promptly verify that it is accurate and is consistent with your H-1B approval, and retain a copy for your records.
