

FIRST STOP: INDEPENDENCE!

PRE-ORIENTATION - AUGUST 14-18, 2020

BUILDING BUCKNELL CONNECTIONS

First Stop: Independence! gives incoming students the opportunity to meet new friends and connect to the extended Bucknell family. Freeman Fellows (Freeman College of Management mentors) and Bucknell alumni both look forward to meeting participants, having some fun, and sharing their experiences from Bucknell and beyond.

POTENTIAL DESTINATIONS (SOME AS A GROUP AND SOME OPTIONAL) INCLUDE:

- Touring the Barnes Museum
- Trip to the Italian Market
- Walking tour of the Independence Mall and seeing the Liberty Bell
- See the Eastern State Penitentiary
- Seeing mosaics at the Philadelphia Magic Gardens
- Viewing the Philadelphia skyline from Liberty One Observation Deck
- Exploring the Philadelphia Zoo
- Climbing the Philadelphia Art Museum steps
- Exploring the Franklin Institute
- Touring TastyKake's facilities
- Visit the African American Museum
- FOOD! Philadelphia cheesesteaks, soft pretzels, cannolis and other regional favorites
- Eat at the Reading Terminal Market

"The amazing part about the program was its ability to connect the youngest Bison with the larger 'herd.' It really showcases what it means to be a Bucknellian and why it is so special."

-Virginia Flagler '20, Freeman Fellow

Bucknell
UNIVERSITY

"This program embodies what it is like to go to Bucknell through showing you the closeness of the school and how much everyone cares about anybody who has a connection to Bucknell."

-Nick Zanghetti '23

Interested? Scan QR code or go to www.bucknell.edu and search "Pre-Orientation."

